

Interview Questions

1. Why did you write these books?
2. What is your mission?
3. How do they reach little children for Christ?
4. Is there a new book coming out?
5. What are the reactions of the children when you read to them at their schools?
6. What makes your books different from other Christian children's books that are in the market today?
7. What lessons do your books teach?
8. Why did you use anthropomorphic characters to teach these lessons?
9. What awards has your series won?
10. Did you always want to write for Children?
11. What do you teach at South Florida Bible College and Theological Seminary?
12. Do you do speaking engagements?
13. Do you have a favorite book?
14. What charities have you given to?
15. Will you have other products from the Adventure of the Sea Kids series?
16. Will there be a TV series in the near future?
17. What struggles have you faced in publishing this series?
18. What advice can you give to parents of children under seven?
19. Have you reached out to the grandparents?
20. What would you like others to know about you?

